

Ejercicio 1: Completar con "some" o "any"

Completa las siguientes oraciones con "some" o "any" según corresponda:

1. Do you have _____ friends in this city?
2. I don't have _____ money with me right now.
3. Could you please pass me _____ water?
4. There aren't _____ apples left in the basket.
5. Can you buy me _____ milk from the store?
6. She doesn't need _____ help with her homework.
7. Are there _____ good restaurants in this neighborhood?
8. We need to buy _____ groceries for dinner tonight.

Ejercicio 2: Cambiar frases afirmativas a negativas e interrogativas

Cambia las siguientes frases afirmativas a negativas e interrogativas, utilizando "some" y "any":

Afirmativa: She has some books.

Negativa: She doesn't have _____ books.

Interrogativa: Does she have _____ books?

Afirmativa: They bought some apples.

Negativa: They didn't buy _____ apples.

Interrogativa: Did they buy _____ apples?

Afirmativa: We need some information about the project.

Negativa: We don't need _____ information about the project.

Interrogativa: Do we need _____ information about the project?

Afirmativa: He has some friends coming over tonight.

Negativa: He doesn't have _____ friends coming over tonight.

Interrogativa: Does he have _____ friends coming over tonight?

Respuestas

Ejercicio 1:

1. any
2. any
3. some
4. any
5. some
6. any
7. any
8. some

Ejercicio 2:

Negativa: She doesn't have any books.

Interrogativa: Does she have any books?

Negativa: They didn't buy any apples.

Interrogativa: Did they buy any apples?

Negativa: We don't need any information about the project.

Interrogativa: Do we need any information about the project?

Negativa: He doesn't have any friends coming over tonight.

Interrogativa: Does he have any friends coming over tonight?